The St. Thomas Horton Farmers' Market is a producer-based Market and a member of Farmers' Markets Ontario. You must be the producer/grower of your own product to be a Vendor at the Market. There are some exceptions to this rule. Please read full details in the 2018 Vendor Rules and Regulation package. Your signature on this document is confirmation that you have read and understand the rules and regulations and agree to abide by them as a Vendor at this Market.

Returning Vendors: Please provide a brief description of your products, and describe in detail any new products for 2018.

New Vendors: Please provide a detailed description of all the products you would like to sell at The Horton Farmers' Market. All new craft and artisan Vendors are required to submit photo samples of their work by email to manager@hortonfarmersmarket.ca. New food Vendors are encouraged to do so as well. Please note, once your application is received by the Market Manager, new Vendors will be contacted by the Manager to review your application and the details of the products you are applying to sell at the Market. Please Refer to Section 9 of Vendor Rules and Regulations for allowable items.

Prepared Food Vendors: Are you using any local product as ingredients? If so, what & from whom?

Craft & Artisan Vendors: Are you using any local product in the production of your product? If so, what and from whom?

Soap & Body Care Vendors: No re-selling of products is allowed at the Market. Are you making your product from scratch? Are you using any local product as ingredients? If so, what & from whom?
